RESPONSIVE READING:

Luke 17:11-19

Leader: And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

People: And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

Leader: And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

People: And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

Leader: And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,

People: And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

Leader: And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

People: There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

... All: And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

In looking at the closing of 2024 and the outset of 2025, this appears to be a season of resolving issues. Whatever challenges have caused changes in your life, don't let them control you. You take authority and control. Here's how and why:

As a child of God and baptized believer in Jesus Christ, you have been conditioned by the Word of God to expect challenges and changes. You can withstand both. In the wilderness, when Satan challenged Jesus, he was defeated by the Word of God. Nothing changed about Jesus because He changes not. Therefore, all your issues can be resolved when you trust God. Our Savior defeats challenges with His Word and He will never change His love for you. He has things under His control, especially when it comes to you using your authority in the name of Jesus.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,

Pastor Herbert B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.
God Bless.
