POSTLUDE

Church Sacred Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

Lift up your hands in praise of the LORD. Whether publicly or privately does not matter as long as you lift your hands in praise.

During the crucial moments that our church family experiences bereavement, it's always important to show God that you still love Him in the midst of it all. God observes how we respond because He cares for us and loves us. Knowing that God cares about our grief, He uses it to help us grow. Just as plants grow from water, so will we from our tears.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,

Pastor H.B. Robinson, Jr., D.

God bless.

Pastor's Anniversary Celebration

On Sunday October 20, 2024 we will celebrate our Pastor's 16th Anniversary.

We will start the celebration at our 11:15 a.m. worship service, immediately followed by dinner in the Mal Robinson Fellowship Hall at 2 p.m.

Our special guest speaker at the 4 p.m. celebration service, will be the Rev. Marvin Youmans and the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. We are excited and look forward to this great fellowship.

Our theme and scripture for the Pastor's Anniversary is:

“Anointed and Appointed by Christ, To Serve His People”

And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ.

Ephesians 4:11-12

If you plan on having dinner with our guests at 2 p.m. on October 20th, there is a sign-up sheet at the rear of the sanctuary.

All Auxiliaries are asked to be in uniform!
