POSTLUDE

RESPONSIVE READING:
John 11:33-44

Leader: When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

People: And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

Leader: Jesus wept.

People: Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

Leader: And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

People: Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

Leader: Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

People: Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

Leader: Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

People: And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

Leader: And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

... All: And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

"Jesus wept." John 11:35 (KJV)

The humanity of God is revealed through the weeping of Jesus. Jesus had gone to the gravesite of his friend Lazarus as requested by his sisters. Jesus asked them a simple question regarding Lazarus' resurrection, but their answer was one that made the Lord weep.

How many times have we made Jesus weep in regards to our belief in the resurrection or His power? Mary and Martha's answer to Lazarus rising on the last day was an insult to the power and presence of Jesus. Even though Lazarus had been dead and buried four days, casting doubt on the Savior's ability to resurrect Lazarus was hurtful to him the Lord.

As Christians, we cannot stop believing in the power of God. What seems impossible to man is possible with God. We should never doubt God's ability to perform miracles with his divine emphasis being that nobody is able to do what he does but Him. None of God's actions are to be understated or under doubt.

We hurt ourselves as well as the Savior when we cast shadows of doubt on Him. Our doubt in God feeds the enemy and the enemy then turns and feeds it back to us with a flavor that satisfies our taste. If the enemy can get you to doubt God one time, he can convince you again and again. And again.

It's where we are in the world and the church today. More and more people are doubting the resurrecting power of Jesus Christ. Regardless of whether it took Jesus four days to get to Lazarus' grave or takes over four zillion years to show the power of God over death, do not make the Savior weep. Jesus told his disciples that Lazarus did not die unto death but unto the power of God and his glory. Jesus knew that the power of God would be seen on the side of that grave in the presence of doubters and those who misunderstood the immediacy of God in a seemingly impossible situation.

I pray that we remain true to our beliefs and faith in what God can do. The more we believe, the stronger our faith. The stronger our faith, the more God demonstrates His miracle working power in our lives. As others go on in their daily lives, we live daily for Christ. If we make Jesus weep, let his tears be tears of joy for our belief and not our unbelief. Do not let the humanity of God lead you into not believing in His power.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,

Pastor H.B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.

God bless..

Taking it to the Altar

Take your worries, concerns and prayers to the altar and leave them there.

'Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.'

Philippians 4:6-7 (KJV)

Marie Van Britten Brown
Nurse & Inventor
(October 22, 922—February 2, 1999)

We have Marie Brown to thank for the home security systems we use today. She needed a way to protect her home while she and her husband were away at work. She worked as a nurse with a varying schedule and her husband as an electronics technician. She devised a system that would allow her to know who was at her home and contact authorities as quickly as possible.

Her system consisted of a two-way communication, surveillance cameras, monitors, a two-way microphone and an emergency button contacting police immediately.

Her first system had a multilevel peep hole that would adjust for the person at the door, child, average height or tall. The camera would then show the image on the monitor via a wireless system. The monitor was portable and be placed anywhere in the home. There was also a voice component to the system that would allow you to speak with the person at the door. Once it was determined if the person was friend or foe you could let them by unlocking the door remotely or push a button to contact the police immediately.

Marie and Albert Brown filed for a patent on August 1, 1966, under the title, “Home Security System Utilizing Television Surveillance.” Their application was approved on December 2, 1969. Brown’s invention gained her well-deserved recognition, including an award from the National Scientists Committee. No year can be found for when the award was given.

Her invention laid the foundation for systems being used today in homes, businesses and by law enforcement. Her patent has been referenced by thirteen other inventors as recently as 2013.

Thank you Marie Brown for helping us protect our homes and businesses.
