POSTLUDE

Church Sacred Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

When you think of all the bad things that have happened in your life, I pray that you redirect your focus to all the good things that God has done. For God has done great things.

I am a living witness to the trials, tribulations and traumatic times one goes through. Currently, and swiftly, things are hitting me from all sides with no end in sight. As I go through these experiences, I could give in or fold to the pressure; but I have been conditioned, as a piece of coal is to become a diamond. I will only bend my knees to the one and only Lord Jesus Christ to whom I owe all things.

God has placed people and situations in my life to prepare me for all I am experiencing. You can have the same things happen to you and the Lord says you must be prepared. The rain definitely will fall on the just as well as the unjust, but God asks us all, "can you stand the rain?" I speak yes into your spirit that you can.

Remember, that goodness and mercy shall continue to follow you as promised by the Lord and ye shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water. Rivers need water, we need God, so welcome the water as it rains.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,
Pastor H. B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.
God bless
