Nothing But the Blood

141

And the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin — 1 John 1:7 KJV

1. What can wash a - way my sin? Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus;
2. For my par-don this I see - Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus;
3. Noth-ing can for sin a - tone - Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus;
4. This is all my hope and peace - Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus;

What can make me whole a - gain? Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus.
For my cleans-ing, this my plea - Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus.
Naught of good that I have done - Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus.
This is all my right-eous-ness - Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus.

Refrain

Oh! pre-cious is the flow That makes me white as snow;

No oth - er fount I know, Noth-ing but the blood of Je - sus.

RESPONSIVE READING:

Romans 10:11-21

Leader: For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

People: For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

Leader: For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

People: How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

Leader: And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

People: But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

Leader: So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

People: But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

Leader: But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

People: But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

... All: But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

Deliver us from evil. That phrase comes from the role model of prayers that Jesus gave to His disciples. In Jesus' reply to teach them how to pray, this is a message also passed on to us and our children's children that can be taught over and over again.

Evil dresses up in various clothing. Evil does not always come by flesh and blood, but it can still affect you physically when it comes. The world has been battling the evil of COVID-19 for nearly two years. It drastically changed our way of living and has made us make enormous adjustments from what we normally do.

Our meetings for worship at the church had become non-existent at True Love because of my respect for human life based on scientific facts. Since it was my call to resume at the building or not, prayer preceded every answer to questions regarding our return. My faith has been questioned by some. My belief in God has been debated among others. My concern for the church fellowship has been doubted also. All of which I wear for opinions of others but more importantly as obedience to God.

My love for God's people and their protection is unwavering. As a matter of fact, God's people includes all humanity, not just True Love members and Christians. So, my love runs deep. It's possibly deeper than most who express their love for others. My love even runs to the depths of those who may be enemies.

I thank God for having made it this far. I am thankful to God having spared my wife's life and family members lives during this evil period of COVID-19 and its collateral damages. God was even gracious enough to bring me through COVID-19, while many others I know and loved used COVID-19 as a vehicle into the kingdom of God.

The ones who have left will be missed. All of us know someone who slipped away during this evil COVID-19 season. We have been left behind for a Godly reason and purpose. I'm not sure what your purpose is, or your intentions are as of now, but my mind was made up long ago.

My purpose is to praise God more than ever before and worship Him as if it is the last time. Giving God my all is reason enough to live, because He will continue to love you and me as He delivers us from evil.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,

Pastor H.B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.

God bless.

The flowers on our virtual altar are in memory of our Fallen Servants and Soldiers.

Taking it to the Altar

Take your worries, concerns and prayers to the altar and leave them there.

'Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.'

Philippians 4:6-7 (KJV)

May is Mental Health Awareness Month and these days we all could use a moment to check in with ourselves and take care of our mental health. A quick, free, anonymous screening can help you figure out if how you have been feeling lately (maybe listless or irritable, having a hard time focusing, sleeping more or less) may be a symptom of depression. Even before the impact of the pandemic, nearly 1 in 5 adults in the U.S. had a mental illness.

So, during the month of May, get screened because mental health matters! Click the link below to take a free, anonymous behavioral health screen we are pleased to offer with our partner, Easterseals of Michigan.

DO YOU KNOW? BLACK HISTORY FACTS

Sir David Adjaye OBE
Architect
(September 22, 1966 Age: 54)

Born in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania to a Ghanaian diplomat, he is a celebrated British-Ghanaian architect. He graduated from the Royal College of Art in London with a MA in 1993. In 2000 he started his own studio. After the postponement of four projects in Europe and Asia, his studio almost went bankrupt. In April of the same year, he was selected to be a part of the architectural team to design the $500 million national Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington D.C. His design a crown motif from Yoruba sculpture was featured in The Smithsonian Institute museum and was opened by Barack Obama in 2016.

His work and contributions can be found in public and private home and iconic buildings like the Studio Museum in Harlem, Museum of Contemporary Art in Denver, the Nobel Peace Centre in Oslo and the Skolkovo Moscow School of Management, completed in 2010.

David teaches at several universities as a visiting professor wherever his is at the time. Princeton University School of Architecture, the University of Pennsylvania and Harvard Graduate School of Design are just a few of the universities where students have been blessed to learn from him.

He holds membership in several international architectural organizations and programs. He keeps himself relevant by hosting a BBC radio program and television when possible. It is because of his work and service that Adjaye was appointed Officer of the British Empire in 2007, one of the highest honors obtainable by any civilian in Great Britain. He is a recipient of the $100,000 Massachusetts Institute of Technology's McDermott award for excellence in the arts. He was knighted by Prince William on behalf of the Queen in the 2017 New Year Honours for services to architecture earning him the title of Sir.
