Church Sacred Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

Church Announcements

Please remember to enter the sanctuary for PRAYER purposes only during the time frame of 10:45-11:10am.

Members: Please do not remove flowers from the Altar unless you are authorized.

The Senior Choir will rehearse every Tuesday in the month of December.

It's time for our Annual Church Membership Information Update. If there has not been any changes to your information (such as name, address, telephone, email address) we are asking that one person from each family simply sign the form in the back of the church verifying there are no changes to your information. Otherwise, please complete an update form (one for each family), also located in the back of the church, so we can update our records. If you have any questions, please contact the church office during normal business hours (Monday–Friday, 9:30am–3:30pm).

The APPS Group will have their regular Friday Night Outings at 6:00pm on December 8 and December 22. If you have any questions or need further information, contact Sis C. Sanders or Rev. Simpkins.

On Sunday, December 10, 2017, the Angelic Voices will be in Concert at 3:30pm.

Plan now to attend our Annual Church Business Meeting Saturday, December 16, 2017 at 10:00am in the Educational Building.

On Sunday, December 17 at 9:00am, we will have our Christian Education Christmas Program. For further information or any questions, please contact Sis. Shirley Davis or Sis. Carol Williams.

We will have New Year's Eve Watch Night Service Sunday, December 31, 2017, beginning at 10:00pm.

All announcements should be submitted to the church office by noon on Wednesday. Call the office or submit to sclark@truelovebaptist.org
