POSTLUDE

Church Sacred Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

A message from our Pastor

Praise the LORD, Saints!

The winter weather temperatures are colder than normal this season. The heavy snow and combined winds have reached a level of concern for our entire nation.

Since we are in this freezing cold, please be safe and smart. Dress warm in and outdoors. Be careful with additional heating devices in your home. While the thought is to help keep warm, heating devices can be damaging if not used properly.

Don't forget to pray for your safety but also offer a prayer for others. There are some who are less fortunate than us and we don't want to forget about them. It was Jesus who commanded us to love our neighbors as ourselves. Let's not forget about others.

Yours because of Christ Jesus,

Pastor Herbert B. Robinson, Jr., D. Min.

God Bless.

Breakfast

On behalf of the Prospect Baptist District Association Congress of Christian Education, we are formally requesting your HELP in sponsoring our 2026 Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) College Tour. The Tour is scheduled for March 31–April 4, 2026. This five-day immersive experience is a targeted initiative designed to remove barriers and create clear pathways to higher education for deserving youth in Metro Detroit.

Won't you join us in sending students on this HBCU tour? If so, please visit and make a donation at our "GoFundMe" page:

"Support HBCU Tours for Metro Detroit Students"

If you have a student you would like to attend the tour See Dr. Nelson for more information. You can also send her an email at drnelsonccp@gmail.com with the child's name and she will send you the criteria needed.
